

VOTE for Kids by November 6

Vote on these Washington State ballot measures!

Initiative 940—YES

Communities of color are disproportionately policed and impacted by deadly force and fear an adverse encounter with a police officer. We all are safer when we can be confident in the skills and judgment of our public servants.

Initiative 1631—YES

By making investments that prioritize the health of our communities and good local jobs, we can ensure a sustainable future for the next generation.

Find out who's for kids and who's just kidding!

Questions to ask candidates, more information about these initiatives, and other election resources are on our website:

www.childrensalliance.org/election2018

Get the word out!

Help others vote for kids! Share this card in your neighborhood, community gathering place, or at work.

VOTE for Kids by November 6

Vote on these Washington State ballot measures!

Initiative 940—YES

Communities of color are disproportionately policed and impacted by deadly force and fear an adverse encounter with a police officer. We all are safer when we can be confident in the skills and judgment of our public servants.

Initiative 1631—YES

By making investments that prioritize the health of our communities and good local jobs, we can ensure a sustainable future for the next generation.

Find out who's for kids and who's just kidding!

Questions to ask candidates, more information about these initiatives, and other election resources are on our website:

www.childrensalliance.org/election2018

Get the word out!

Help others vote for kids! Share this card in your neighborhood, community gathering place, or at work.

VOTE for Kids by November 6

Vote on these Washington State ballot measures!

Initiative 940—YES

Communities of color are disproportionately policed and impacted by deadly force and fear an adverse encounter with a police officer. We all are safer when we can be confident in the skills and judgment of our public servants.

Initiative 1631—YES

By making investments that prioritize the health of our communities and good local jobs, we can ensure a sustainable future for the next generation.

Find out who's for kids and who's just kidding!

Questions to ask candidates, more information about these initiatives, and other election resources are on our website:

www.childrensalliance.org/election2018

Get the word out!

Help others vote for kids! Share this card in your neighborhood, community gathering place, or at work.

VOTE for Kids by November 6

Vote on these Washington State ballot measures!

Initiative 940—YES

Communities of color are disproportionately policed and impacted by deadly force and fear an adverse encounter with a police officer. We all are safer when we can be confident in the skills and judgment of our public servants.

Initiative 1631—YES

By making investments that prioritize the health of our communities and good local jobs, we can ensure a sustainable future for the next generation.

Find out who's for kids and who's just kidding!

Questions to ask candidates, more information about these initiatives, and other election resources are on our website:

www.childrensalliance.org/election2018

Get the word out!

Help others vote for kids! Share this card in your neighborhood, community gathering place, or at work.

